

Governor,

Fyi, RGA is doing some press work recapping GOP Governors' position on card check. I've given this to them:

"Card check is an insidious infringement on the right of American workers to cast a confidential ballot in deciding whether or not they want union representation. This is particularly unfair for small businesses, the real engine of the American economy that generates nearly 80 percent of net new jobs."

Thanks,

Buddy